A BED OF ROSES

by Hal E. Roach

In the comedy "A BED OF ROSES" the actor's life especially the comedy actor's life is very strikingly portrayed in a number of stunts and scenes wherein after strenuous efforts and hair-breathed escapes he is hustled from one location to another in order to get through the proscribed number of scenes in the days work. When all the scenes have been taken the actor is more than to be pitied than praised for he looks more like a human wreck and the satirical name of the comedy "A Bed of Roses" is not at all disappplied.
